Boundaries: A Casebook in Environmental Ethics, Christine E. Gudorf, James Edward Huchingson, Georgetown University Press, 2010, 1589016858, 9781589016859, 328 pages. In this expanded and revised edition of a fresh and original case-study textbook on environmental ethics, Christine Gudorf and James Huchingson continue to explore the line that separates the current state of the environment from what it should be in the future. Boundaries begins with a lucid overview of the field, highlighting the key developments and theories in the environmental movement. Specific cases offer a rich and diverse range of situations from around the globe, from saving the forests of Java and the use of pesticides in developing countries to restoring degraded ecosystems in Nebr..
